The workshop is promoted and supported by two departments of the EHESS (CETOBAC and IISMM) and ANR Transtur. ## Collective Projects

- 2011 In collaboration with the members of the Balkan section of the CETOBAC, I am participating in the production of a collective reference book on Balkan history in the 19th and 20th centuries. Under the coordination of Xavier Bougarel, I am in charge of the “Gender and the Body” section. In this capacity, I am responsible for contacting scholars who study gender and the body in Balkan societies, selecting them and coordinating with them in order to write this section of the collective book, which will be published in 2013.
